EXPERIMENTAL FARM BILL

Om motion of Mr. Rixey of Virginia, by unanimous request the House yesterdsy, as stated in the Gazette of that date, passed House bill providing as follows: "Toat jurisdiction is transferred and given to the Secretary of Agriculture and his successors in office over so much of the government land in Alexandria county, Va., known as the Arlington estate, as lies east of the public road leading from the Aqueduct bridge to Alexandria, Va., and between said road and the Potomac river, containing about 400 acres.

"Sec 2. That the declared purpose of this act is to set spart said tract of land as a general experimental farm in its broadest sense, where all that pertains to agriculture to its several and different written by Dr. Jones, of brauches, including animal industry and horticulture, may be fostered and encouraged and the practice and science of farming in the United States advanced, promoted and practically illustrated. "Sec. 3 That the Secretary of Agriculture will take immediate and absolute control of said property described in section one, and by clearing, under-After dinner the paper written by roads and driveways, constructing proper bridges and buildings, and in other ways as his judgment may dictate bring said property as rapidly as possi-ble into the proper condition to answer the purposes for which it is set apart.

"Provided, That all improvements of or which may at any time be made upon said premises, as herein contemplated, shall be so located, constructed and maintained as not to interfere with or obstruct the natural waterways or the sewers or other means now established or which may hereafter be provided, constructed or maintained for the purpose of affording proper drainage and sewerage to the other portions of said estate; and provided further, That this act shall not impair or interfere with any of the rights heretofore granted by act of Congress to the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company to construct, mairtain and operate its electric railroad across the said portion of the esta e lying east of said public road.

"Sec. 4. That in the development, improvement and management of said property full discretion is hereby given give the Secretary of Agriculture and his successors in office to carry into effect the declared purposes to this act. "Sec. 5. That this act shall be in force from its passage."

The report on the bill said: "There is no question but what, under the care and direction of the Secre-tary of Agriculture, the premises, now so uninviting to the view, would not only be changed to 'a beauty spot,' but would also prove to be of much practical and substantial benefit to the Agricuitural Department."

REMNANT DAY

Our Special Bargain Day.

Our policy has given a fixed meaning to the words "Remnant Day." The public understands us. We never trifle with words. Every plan and every movement has a definite individual meaning. The sole object o our remnant day is to dispose of the inevita ble accomulation of odds and ends, short lengths, broken sizes and assortments, &c. that results from a week's selling.

Special attention is directed to tomorrow's remnant sale because all sorts of remnants are here in greater quant es than usual, and owing to this fact are offered at very much lower prices than usual in or ler to assure a quick and complete clearance. Feveral larger lots of goods are also offered at bargain prices.

WASHINGTON, D C. Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given by Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her swake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of Paeumonia. Such cures are positively proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at E.
